2.8 Elected Council Members

2.8.1 The 4 (four) elected members of the Council will hold office for 3(three) years.

2.8.2 In the event that the position of an elected Council member becomes vacant, the Council shall co-opt a new member at the next Council meeting. The new co-opted Council member shall serve the remainder of the 3(three) year term and shall have full voting rights.

2.9 Nominated Representatives

Representatives nominated by the nominating constituencies shall serve a 3(three) year term unless recalled earlier and replaced by their nominating constituency.

2.10 The Associate Representative

2.10.1 The Associate Representative would hold office for 3(three) years.

2.10.2 Election would take place at the same time as that for the elected Council members.

2.10.3 The Associate Representative would be an Associate member in good standing.

2.10.4 Only Associate members would participate in the election of the Associate Representative.

2.10.5 Associate members would be entitled to vote for the Associate Representative only.

3. ELECTIONS AND RETIREMENT OF THE COUNCIL AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

3.1 Elected members of the Council shall remain in office for a minimum period of 3 (three) years, unless the term is extended by members at a general meeting by special resolution.

3.2 A newly constituted Council shall take office at the close of the 3rd Ordinary Annual General meeting held under the auspices of an outgoing Council.

3.2 During the 3rd (last) year of a Council's term, the Board shall (a) timeously (before the end of January of such year) appoint an Electoral Officer from among Council Members or any other Member of the Company or any person deemed fit for this purpose to organize the upcoming election of the new Council, and (b) set the date for the Council election, which date shall be at least 66 (sixty-six) days before the date of the 3rd (last) AGM in the term of the current Council.

3.3 The Electoral Officer shall dispatch to each member at his registered address (failing such, his last known address) or by email notice if so provided to the Company, and by posting such notice on the Company website, a notice of the forthcoming election, together with a copy of the relative rules and inviting nominations for members of the Council. Such notice shall be done at least 122 (hundred and twenty-two) days before the date set for the elections, and state the latest date by which nominations must be received.

3.4 Voting will take place by means of an electronic voting system and/or a paper-based system

3.5 Every vacancy in the number of elected members of the Council (other than a casual vacancy) shall be filled in the following manner:

3.5.1 nominations of candidates;

3.5.2 every candidate for elected members of the Council shall be a member and shall be nominated in writing by at least 2(two) members of the relevant category.

3.6 Time for receiving nominations:

Every nomination paper together with the candidate's consent to stand for election shall be lodged with the Electoral Officer of the Company at least 100 (one hundred) days prior to the date fixed for the election.

3.7 When to issue voting papers and publish voting list:

At least 88 (eighty-eight) days prior to the date fixed for the election, voting papers together with a list of the candidates for election and a statement as to the number to be elected shall be sent to Members at their respective registered addresses (failing such, to their last known respective registered address), or by email notice if so provided to the Company, and by posting such notice on the Company website, together with the rules and procedures applicable to such electronic voting and for purposes of electronic voting, such list shall be contained on the Company website.

3.8 Method of voting:

Each Member desiring to record a vote (as the case may be) shall either do so electronically or shall mark upon the voting paper received by him one cross (thus X) against the name of each candidate for who he intends to vote. A Member shall be deemed to have spoiled his voting paper and the vote or votes purported, to be recorded thereon shall not be counted if:

3.8.1 he votes for more candidates than there are persons to be elected as indicated in any accompanying; or if

3.8.2 he votes more than once for the same person or returns more than one voting paper.

3.9 Time for receiving votes:

Members shall submit their electronic votes before midnight of the date fixed for the election or, if voting by paper vote, shall fill in their respective voting papers and return the same to the Electoral Officer by hand, post, electronic mail or fax so as to reach him before midnight of the date fixed for the election, and no votes received by the Electoral Officer after midnight on such day shall be counted as valid.

3.10 Validity of Votes:

Any voting paper adjudged by the Electoral Officer to be improperly or incorrectly filled in shall be declared to be invalid.

3.11 Counting Votes:

The votes shall be counted by the Electoral Officer and/or scrutinizers appointed by the Electoral Officer and the Electoral Officer shall report to the President of the outgoing Council at least 44 (forty-four) days before the next succeeding general meeting. The aforesaid President shall inform the newly elected members of the election immediately, and request them to be present at the next succeeding annual general meeting, in order to elect the new office bearers of the company.

3.12 Equality of Votes:

In the event on an equality of votes in any election for membership of the Council and such equality affecting the result of the election the President or; failing him the Vice – President, shall have the casting vote.

3.13 Constituency of the incoming Council:

The outgoing President will announce the outcome of the election at the end of the 3rd (last) Annual General Meeting of the outgoing Council. After the announcement, the annual general meeting shall close and the new incoming Council will elect its office bearers and set the date for its first full meeting. The outgoing president/vice-president/electoral officer shall preside over the election of the new office bearers.

4. Board of Directors

4.1 The entire board of directors shall resign immediately after the newly elected Council has been constituted at the annual general meeting, so that the new Council can elect a new board, although the outgoing board members may stand for re-election.

4.2. The Council's newly elected President, Vice president, Secretary and Treasurer shall "ex officio" become directors, with the same portfolio in the Board, and two additional directors must be elected by the new Council from its ranks.

Part B

Not applicable.

Part C

In order for an individual to hold the office of director, he/she must be a Full Member of the Company.

Part D

The authority of the Board to manage and direct the business affairs of the Company is only limited in as far as the "policy and strategic dictates" of the Council must, at all times, be adhered to by the Board.
